One Course Instructor Position

SOC394H1F - New Topics in Sociology: Sociology of LGBTQ+ Families

This class will provide students with an in-depth understanding of the variety and lived realities of families within the LGBTQ+ communities of Canada and the USA. Students will critically examine normative notions of family across axes of gender, race/ethnicity, class, marital status, and kinship ties, giving particular attention to how LGBTQ+ families challenge these patterns. At the same time, we explore the material, institutional, and legal challenges faced by LGBTQ+ families.

Estimated Enrollment: 100 students
Tutorials: No
Estimated TA Support: 110 hours
Class Schedule: Fridays, 12-2
Dates of Appointment: September 1, 2019 – December 31, 2019*

*Please note: This position includes the completion of any course work and grading not completed by December 31, 2019.

Salary: $8,058 (includes vacation pay)

Academic Qualifications: MA in Sociology or related field required, with evidence of good progress in PhD program. Strong academic record in area required. Superior undergraduate teaching at the university level directly related to the area is strongly preferred.
